The drama begins with eighteen-years-old boy and his families descending through the countryside. Wanting to tell the story with the daily life and the events of the boy who was a typical city child who was accustomed to urban life and the family in a new environment.

On February 7, KBS's upcoming drama "Andante" revealed a glimpse of EXO's Kai at the first shooting for the drama back in the middle of January. In the images, Kai has perfectly changed into the 18-year-old high school student Si Kyung. His face seems to reflect some sort of worry or fear, making fans wonder how the drama will unfold.

On the first day of filming, Kai lightened up the mood with a smooth smile and enthusiastic attitude. Even the director was surprised by his dedication when he saw that Kai had prepared various voice tones for even the simplest scenes. Kai went from shy to innocent depending on the scene, portraying the complicated mind of a high school student.

A source from the production team complimented Kai, saying, "Despite the cold weather and harsh schedule, Kai is continuing to film optimistically, showing his professional attitude. His character will be facing drastic changes later in the drama, so there is still much more that Kai will be able to show us. Please look forward to it."

Meanwhile, "Andante" is a pre-produced drama that shares the story of Si Kyung, a kid from the city who transfers to a high school in the countryside. As he takes on various unfamiliar experiences, he grows and learns about the true meaning of life and love. Stay tuned for more updates on the drama!

William J. Spencer (Pierre Deporte) is a young British aristocrat in the year 1640 with a fascination for East Asian art, languages, and culture. He counts as his closest friend the young somewhat mercenary Japanese merchantman Yan. William is swindled by a shady merchant into believing that a plain porcelain chamber pot is a mystical artifact; he then sails off to Nagasaki in order to open the "aquatic silk road" between Japan and England, but mostly to escape his creepy and overbearing mother and an arranged marriage. Yan is promised a handsome reward if he can drag her son back in time for the wedding and hightails it after his "friend."

Meanwhile, the Joseon Kingdom is operating under a foreign policy that strictly prohibits trade with Westerners, garnering the nickname "the hermit kingdom." Just south of the Korean mainland lies the island of Jeju, which at this point in history is known as Tamra. The people who live on the island derive their livelihoods by diving for abalone, cultivating a large area of persimmon orchards, and basic subsistence farming; much of what they produce is tithed to the King through a corrupt local government.

Park Gyu (Im Joo-hwan) arrives from Hanyang (the historical name for Seoul) on a secret mission from the King to uncover corruption, embezzlement, and whatever else he may find on Tamra. However, his cover story leads to a tangle of complications for him: used to being doted on as an aristocratic scholar and high government official, he is sent to Tamra on the pretense of having been at the center of a sexual harassment scandal for which he has been permanently banished to the island, where he will have to work for a local family despite not being used to manual labor.

Yoo-Jin (Joo Won) is a university student majoring in piano. He has a world famous pianist father, exceptional music talent and attractive appearance, but his one weakness is that he can't ride in an airplane or boat due to a childhood trauma. Because of his phobia, Yoo-Jin is unable to travel to Europe to learn conducting even though he badly wants to become a conductor.

One day, Yoo-Jin gets drunk and falls asleep on the doorstep of Nae-II (Shim Eun-Kyung). She lives next door to Yoo-Jin. The next morning, he wakes up and finds himself in a room full of trash and he sees Nae-II. Nae-II falls in love with him and follows him around. Nae-II is also a piano major and takes lessons from Professor Ahn Gun-Sung (Nangung Yeon). Yoo-Jin is soon assigned to take lessons from Professor Ahn Gun-Sung as well. His arrogance has led him to take lessons from Professor Ahn Gun-Sung rather than Professor Do Gang-Jae (Lee Byung-Joon) who is renowned for instructing many famous pianists. Professor Ahn Gun-Sung then assigns Yoo-Jin to perform a piano duet with Nae-II. At first, Yoo-Jin insists that Nae-II follows his instructions, but he soon changes and accepts her way to play the piano.

Yoo-Jin then hears that world-famous conductor Franz Stresemann (Baek Yoon-Sik) will be coming to his university. Yoo-Jin is ecstatic, because he can learn from Franz Stresemann without going to Europe. Yoo-Jin is unaware though that Franz Stresemann dislikes his father and his famous childhood musical instructor Vieira.

Okavango, The River that Doesn't Flow

흐르지 않는 강

Documentary

Time/Units 54 min. x 1 UHD

It rains in Angola three times a year.

The rain flows 1,600 kilometers and creates a huge delta, the Okavango, in the Botswana desert, instead of flowing into the sea. The Okavango Delta, which serves as a life-giving water for animals during Africa's driest season. The Okavango, which has protected animals for the past 2 million years, is now suffering from a drought. The river that used to flood the Kalahari Desert 20 years ago has now dried up, and only a few very small areas are submerged. In addition, due to the chronic water shortage in Africa, the Okavango River, which crosses several borders, is a water resource for many countries and is part of conflicts such as the construction of waterways. In this way, human selfishness also has a negative impact on the cycle of nature. Although the exact root cause has not been identified, the number of wild animals in the Okavango is decreasing. Join the Okavango wildlife on their perilous journey as they grapple with a severe drought.

Soul of Asia, Ottchil

아시아의 영혼, 옷칠

Documentary

Time/Units 52 min. x 2 UHD

Subject and Theme

Subject: Ottchil

Theme: When Ottchil is varnished on household items, furniture or paintings, they become immortal to be preserved for the millennia without being transformed. The preservation capability of Ottchil is scientifically analyzed and breath of oriental artisans who continue the culture of Ottchil is explored.

Have you ever seen a Ottchil art work? I firmly believe that it is difficult to avert eyes once you have a look at it. It is a natural paint obtained from sap of natural Ottchil tree which is native to Asia. There are only four countries that make artworks with natural Ottchil even in the East. Ottchil art is a very special culture. Korea, China, Japan, and Vietnam have developed their own Ottchil arts with originality.

It is found that Ottchil kept Tripitaka Koreana, the complete collection of Buddhist scriptures carved on over eighty thousand wood blocks, which boasts a history of more than 750 years, from corrosion and maintained its shape for a long time. Ottchil is worth noting not only because it is beautiful but also because it has many functional aspects. It is said that properly painted Ottchil makes things live forever. In modern times, it has attracted attention not only as an art but also as a functional paint through various experiments and researches. Ottchil is also excellent for expressing deep and rich colors. Therefore, there are a lot of artisans who devoted themselves to Ottchil art for a lifetime because they are attracted by the charm of Ottchil even though it is a work requiring huge labor.
